Education: National Grid is still offering educational classes on line. There were handouts on Blower door testing and Duct Blaster leakage.

- Amherst Seminar Conference - Bill Hanley informed the members that this year it was electric registration as well as being scanned each time you enter and exit a classroom for your accurate credits. Next year they may go with all scanning. Next year if you pre-register you will get a discount.
- RIBOA Expo- Wayne AND Peter reported that the program for the upcoming RIBOA Expo is going well. Wayne noted that this program is geared towards contractors with proceeds to go to the education fund and vocational student scholarships. All of the vocational schools will be invited and are encouraged to attend. Peter will provide handouts for all Cities and Towns to display and it will also be distributed to local lumber yards. Steve G. again extended the offer by RIBA for the generous complimentary ad to be published in the Rhode Island Builders Report for the months leading up to the event. This helps get the word out to contractors and we appreciate the efforts of Steve and generosity of RIBA. We will be looking for member volunteers to help out with the event and the day of the event. Please contact Peter or Wayne if you can help out. The event is scheduled for February 2016 at New England Tech in East Greenwich.
- Golf Committee- Crystal Lake for June 17, 2016.
- Legislation- Jack Leyden passed out permit fee schedules for discussion. On October 14th in room 203 at the State House there was a meeting to discuss new state wide permitting. At the November Building Code Standards Committee meeting Jack will submit final draft to the board.
- New Business-
- Our next RIBOA meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 18th from 1 – 4:00 p.m. in the lower level conference room in the front City Hall building.
- Stan Dickerson will be attending code classes in Las Vegas in March and was inquiring on assistance from RIBOA. There was motion by Richard Case Seconded by Bob Speaker that funds be given to Stan up to $350.00. All members approved.
- Easter States will be in Portsmouth NH in April 2016.

Health & Welfare: Chris Ivory passed away. There was a motion by Dave Provonsil seconded by Jack Leyden to donate $200. All members approved.

Shirt Raffle-The shirt raffle was won by Warren Ducharme.
